To whom it may concern,

We support Pierre Rehov's documentaries. They dispel many of the myths regarding Israel and the Palestinians as they deal in depth with the main issues in the region through unbiased work. Issues such as incitement in the Palestinian media and speeches in Arabic, the fate of Christians under the rule of the Palestinian Authority, the little-known story of the million Jewish refugees who had to flee their countries and the story behind the fate of the Palestinian refugees.

For these reasons the films should be given as much exposure as possible so that people get to the truth of the matter.
